Sheriff C. C. Clawson identified the gun-wielder as Donald Helton, 22.

The sheriff said Helton took his own life after he went berserk with a .45 caliber automatic in an apparent attempt to wipe out his entire family.

Speculate On Early Reshuffle Of Labor Cabinet In Britain

(BULLETIN)
LONDON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Speculation on an early reshuffle of the British Labor government mounted today following the most bitter press criticism yet delivered on Britain's economic crisis.

Newspapers assailed the government's "siege economy" measures announced last night as inadequate, ineffectual and dictatorial.

Reports which conservative quarters claimed are factual—but not admitted at Number 10 Downing street—said Prime Minister Attlee will step down in favor of Foreign Secretary Bevin "at the first favorable opportunity."

These reports received a certain amount of credence in non-cabinet labor circles.

A foreign office official said that although Bevin officially heads the British delegation to the United Nations general assembly he cannot be expected to lead it.

Shoots Without Warning
Authorities said Helton entered a skating rink late last night where his estranged wife, Jacqueline, 16, was attending a party. Helton fired two bullets into his wife's chest without warning, and then sent one bullet into the body of her 12-year-old brother, Walter. Knearmen, when the latter rushed to his sister's side.

Helton left the skating rink, and sped to his family's farm four miles away in his surplus war jeep. He walked into the home of his father, Earl, 60, and shot him fatally. When his 55-year-old mother attempted to shield her husband, Helton shot her in the hand.

Security Council Sessions To End

Members To Take Two Weeks Vacation Before General Assembly Meets

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug. 28.—(INS)—The United Nations Security Council rushed today to clear Egypt's case off the calendar and suspend meetings for the next 15 days in preparation for the General Assembly.

Although the pause of two weeks is for some members of the 11-nation body a long-delayed vacation, others who have no substitutes will have to continue their labors as members of the Atomic Energy commission. It will draft its second report to the Security Council next week.

The resumed hearing on Egypt's demand that British troops withdraw unconditionally from the Sudan, the Nile valley and all of Egypt, begins at 10:30 EDT today. It will be closely guarded to prevent disturbances such as caused by two Moslems on Friday and Tuesday.

A majority of council observers already have written the Egyptian case off, a prospect recognized by Prime Minister Nokrashy Pasha and his entourage.

DISCUSS CHANGE IN COLOR SCHEME FOR U. S. CURRENCY

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Secretary of Treasury Snyder disclosed today that treasury officials have had some discussions on the proposal to use a different color for each denomination of currency.

Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers (R) Mass., has recommended a change in the color scheme of the present greenback currency.

Snyder said such a move might save some people from being cheated by unscrupulous operators when making change.

County Schools Ready For Start

All Districts Are In Splendid Shape For Opening Next Week, Syling States

FEW VACANCIES ARE REPORTED

With conditions for the opening next week more favorable than in a number of years, the opening of the school term in the rural schools of Lawrence county will get under way in an auspicious manner next week, County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling announced today.

There are fewer vacancies in the teaching staffs of the various schools, he stated, and enough regular teachers or qualified substitutes are available to take care of the situation, Mr. Syling stated.

One Vacancy
There is one vacancy not yet filled at Mt. Jackson, where a mid-level teacher will be needed to fill the shoes of Mr. Kyle, who resigned to accept a position as music director in the Ford City schools.

But all-in-all the general situation this year is better than in a number of years, the county school superintendent stated.

Quite a number of the schools will start on Tuesday, immediately following the Labor Day holiday, while others will start on Wednesday, and by the end of the week all will be in session, Mr. Syling says.

Pa Newc Observes

A broken water line on Fern street was proving a boon to kids of the Croton area on Wednesday afternoon. The cool water seeping up from the street was being used by the youngsters as a means of getting cooled off. The water flowed for some time before corrective measures were taken.

The West Side bridge was receiving a coat of paint on Wednesday afternoon. The work is being done by the State Highway Department. Previously the task fell to County employees.

Costly taxi-cab rides continue to be in vogue. Recently cabs from Pittsburgh and Youngstown were noted cruising the streets of New Castle.

Hauling of heavy roadbuilding machinery on local streets is having its effect on cartways of some of the thoroughfares. Neighboring cities have posted at various intersections the weight of a loaded truck that is permitted to traverse the street. The precaution helps preserve the smoothness of the streets.

Plans are well under way for a new school year; even the youngsters have been laying plans. Two youngsters with resigned looks on their faces were standing in front of the East Street school, taking stock of their bubble gum, rubber band and pon gun collection, when one said "Well, at least I know what seats to avoid this year."

Patrons of the New Castle Field club are happy to know that two lanes of the new Wilmington road have been completed that far and the road is now available for use. Use of detours to get to the field club has been necessary since early in the summer, but the road is now open for use to that point, it is learned.

CAPTURE GERMAN
YOKOHAMA, Aug. 28.—(INS)—The capture of Herbert Hueniken, former clerk at the German embassy in Tokyo, was announced today by U. S. Eighth Army officials in Yokohama.

Former Premier Declares Hirohito Gave War Order

TOKYO, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Former Premier Hideki Tojo declared in a statement read at the Tokyo war crimes trial that Emperor Hirohito issued direct orders for the launching of the Pacific war.

The statement, made by "Pearl Harbor Premier" Tojo under preliminary questioning while he was awaiting trial, asserted:

"The orders were issued by the emperor as commander in chief of the army and navy on the advice of army and navy chiefs of staff."

Tojo, principal defendant of the 25 former Japanese leaders on trial, was quoted further as having told allied interrogators that the emperor's orders were to attack Pearl Harbor, Singapore, the Philippines and Hong Kong.

According to Tojo's statement, the orders were issued following an imperial conference at the emperor's palace in Tokyo Dec. 1, 1941, six days before Japanese forces attacked American and British outposts in the Pacific.

Bessemer Youth Dies Of Injuries

Young Penn State Graduate Is Crushed Beneath Freight Car At Limestone Plant

EXPIRES EARLY THIS MORNING

Arthur Norman Tenhula's hopes of some day becoming a famous lawyer were ended this morning when the 20-year-old Bessemer youth died in the Jameson Memorial hospital at 6:30 o'clock from the injuries he sustained about midnight at the Bessemer Limestone company in Bessemer.

Arthur, a graduate of Penn State college, was making preparations to enter law school this fall, and had been working at the Bessemer plant to earn funds for his schooling. He was engaged in loading some cars of crushed limestone on the loading track at the crusher plant of the company when other workmen, unaware of his presence, released some empty cars which drifted down the track.

THREE OR FOUR FEARED BURIED UNDER DEBRIS

Garage Suddenly Collapses In Pittsburgh This Afternoon Trapping Men

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 28.—(INS)—At least three or four men were believed buried this afternoon when a Pittsburgh garage in which they were working suddenly collapsed.

Harry Burkett, a garage worker who witnessed the collapse, said: "The whole thing just folded up like a sheet of paper."

Burkett said workers excavating for a foundation next to the garage apparently came too close to the building, causing it to collapse. He said the excavators were using bulldozers in their operations.

All available police and fire equipment was rushed to the scene. Rescue crews immediately began to dig through the debris. Efforts to call the men brought no answer.

Names of those buried were not immediately available.

Forecast 250 Will Die In Traffic In Week-End Period

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Two hundred fifty persons will die in traffic accidents during the three-day Labor Day week end.

That toll was the prediction of the National Safety Council in Chicago today.

The council said the estimate applied only to immediate traffic deaths and did not include persons who would succumb later from holiday injuries.

With good weather, an estimated 30,000,000 cars will be on the road during the week end.

Broad Coalition Greek Cabinet May Be Formed

ATHENS, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Official announcement of the impending formation of a broad coalition Greek government under a "neutral" premier brought the prospects today of the strongest anti-Communist unity in Greece since the war.

Political observers predicted that Gen. Alexander Papagos, King Paul's chamberlain and commander in chief of Greek forces during the war against Italy, would head the new government.

Constantine Tsaldaris, who failed to form a projected multi-party cabinet under his leadership and then was blocked from efforts to form a government composed entirely of pro-Fascist Populist party members, began new talks "with a view to forming a common cabinet."

Such a solution to the Greek political crisis was believed acceptable to the United States and Britain. They opposed Tsaldaris' projected rightist-dominated cabinet as weakening the stop-Communism campaign.

Tsaldaris conferred with party leaders who formed the coalition under Premier Demetrios Maximos which collapsed last Saturday when three liberal ministers resigned in protest over the conduct of the campaign against the guerrilla movement.

GO BACK TO GIBRALTAR (BULLETIN)

The pilots, Cliff Evans, 27, of Washington, D. C., and George Truman, 39, of Los Angeles, were scheduled to land at Prestwick, Scotland, but heavy mists forced them to alter their course.

Arthur Mometer

Give me a shaker of salt, and tomatoes red on the vine; give me an appetite (which I have) and everything will be fine. And if you wish you can add a sandwich of good, sharp cheese, the bread can be rye with some butter, too, and as long as you're doing it—please—add a scuttle of buttermilk, with the golden blobs on the crust, and here is a lunch that has everything, the rituals that I like best. But back of it all there must be tomatoes, and let me say, I'm fixed for my food for a little while—it's eighty-seven today.

Starr is commander of the headquarters service company at general headquarters. The general was not in his office, but Capt. Warren P. Davis tried to explain to the irate women that the anti-pet edict was issued only to enforce an army order of last June 3.

Mid-Atlantic and beyond Hawaii. Senator Deland, of Peru, threatened that unless his country's views are incorporated in the defense pact, or at least in the minutes, Peru may abstain from signing the historic document.

Dispute Arises
The dispute arose when Dr. Rocha of Colombia urged that principles providing for severe and immediate sanctions against an aggressor be included.

The Peruvian replied today that this was the very antithesis of the American spirit of conciliation and contrary to the policies defined in the act of Chapultepec and the United Nations charter.

Beland insisted that every effort at conciliation be made prior to the application of sanctions. Meanwhile a United States spokesman corrected an earlier announcement which said that the treaty will be signed Wednesday.

Ceremony Tuesday
The spokesman said the ceremony now is scheduled to take place Tuesday in Rio de Janeiro following the final plenary session which will be addressed by Mr. Truman.

The conference was electrified by the announcement of President Truman's visit to Brazil.

The president will leave Washington Sunday by plane and will remain in the Brazilian capital to take part in the country's independence celebration Sept. 7.

The announcement gave impetus to a speedup of committee work and nightly meetings were scheduled to facilitate progress.

Elizabeth Millard, state juvenile matron, spoke on juvenile contact and the responsibility of the adult toward the child.

Hon. Louis E. Graham, district congressman, was the evening speaker, giving a report of the eightieth congress.

Congressman Speaks
The first point to be emphasized in Mr. Graham's talk was the fact that no country had ever had such a large debt as the United States.

He said that government costs must be reduced, for debt, as it is now, means that every piece of property in the U. S. is mortgaged to its full value. He also stated that money loaned to foreign countries should be spent wisely, and the United States should see that it is.

Mr. Graham discussed at length the force and power that Russia has and can have available and the trouble that Communism can bring to the United States.

He said, "We must be on the alert against a warfare of ideas that will carry trouble to the U. S.—that of Communism." Mr. Graham further added that at present there are 367 fronts of Communism in the United States.

He urged everyone to take stock of themselves, their homes, families, schools, and outside influences on the children. He said that it should be deeply embedded in the heart of every American to want to save America.

On the eve of the opening session of the Legion's convention, the Legion's foreign relations committee drew up a report urging the convention to support the Marshall plan as a means of building a bulwark in western Europe against communism.

The report, drafted during a five-hour executive meeting, will be submitted to the convention floor tomorrow for consideration and adoption.

General Collins, battle-tested veteran of the Saint Lo break-through and other major battles of World War II, said that only universal military training would provide this reservoir of trained man-power.

SPECULATE ON EARLY RESHUFFLE OF LABOR CABINET IN BRAZIL

not state that the foreign secretary will be present when the conference convenes in New York Sept. 15.

Changes Loom
Conservative informants claimed that Herbert Morrison, deputy prime minister, had been offered the top government post but was compelled to turn it down because of ill health.

Morrison, they said, agreed, however, to remain as the Labor party's leader in commons and lord president of the council under Bevin.

Informants added that Sir Stafford Cripps, president of the Board of Trade, already has agreed to replace Hugh Dalton as chancellor of the exchequer.

Among those whose careers are said to be in jeopardy are Aneurin Bevan, minister of health, and F. J. Bellenger, secretary of state for war.

To Make "Speech of Life"
The conservative spokesmen claimed that Foreign Minister Bevin has told intimate friends that he will make the "speech of my life" before the Trades Union Congress at Southport Wednesday.

It was suggested that Bevin will deliberately invite a vote of confidence from the congress as a forerunner to the premiership.

It is regarded as significant that Bevin is taking an increasing part in domestic affairs. He is terminating his vacation tomorrow to return to London. This is being done ostensibly to be in readiness for another cabinet emergency session next week.

Today, the most serious problem, which faces any public official, is that of taxation. It is necessary to procure sufficient funds to maintain governmental services, but it is imperative also that the whole cost of these services shall not be imposed upon Real Estate, and particularly upon the houses and lots of Home Owners and of Renters.

The members of your City Council realize this problem and have spent much time and study in trying to solve it. They have consulted with State officials and with the officers of many other cities, and have planned to run your city economically and to find other sources of revenue to relieve the burden on Homes.

Familiarity with this vital question and experience in handling it, which I have gained in serving the City, I believe qualifies me to serve you further. I believe that you, too, will consider that a valuable asset when you come to choose a candidate for City Councilman at the Primary on September 9, 1947.

Please note my name and initials, D. O. DAVIES, and that it is the First name on the Republican Ballot for that office. If you, the Voters and Property Owners, believe that I am able and experienced to serve you for another four years, I will appreciate your vote and your support.

Respectfully,

D. O. DAVIES

WEDDING TODAY AT CROTON CHURCH

Croton Methodist church was the scene of a lovely wedding this morning at 10 o'clock when Miss Annie Lucy Domenick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Domenick, 112 West Cherry street, became the bride of Harry Paul Pascarella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pascarella, 1413 Croton avenue.

Rev. Owen W. Shields performed the single ring ceremony before an improvised altar of ferns, palms and cut flowers in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in a white satin gown trimmed in seed pearl, embroidery sweetheart neckline and long train, and a veil edged with bead embroidery. For something borrowed she wore a strand of pearls. Her bouquet consisted of calla lilies, centered with an orchid.

As matron of honor Mrs. Frank Palmiro was dressed in a yellow gown with orchid accessories and carried a bouquet of red roses. Bridesmaids Sophie Moses, Millie Grieco, Mollie Matteo, Alice Pascarella and Rose Marie Dottle were all gowned in orchid, with yellow accessories, and carried colonial bouquets of yellow tea roses.

Frank Palmiro served as best man, with Joe Klingensmith, William Moses, James Zarella, Grant Wright, Lewis Domenick serving as ushers.

Preceding the ceremony Roland Crisell, junior student at Westminster college, Princeton, N. J., played on the electric organ, "I Love Thee," by Grieg; "Oh Promise Me," "Because," "I Love You Truly" and the professional "Bridal March from Lohengrin." "The Lord's Prayer," by Malotte, was sung as a solo by Mr. Crisell at the conclusion of the ceremony. He was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Clayton Cramer. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as the recessional.

Immediately following the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served at the groom's home. The wedding dinner was served at one o'clock in Columbus hall. A reception is planned for this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the same place for 400 guests.

The couple will leave this evening for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, and upon their return will be at home at 1413 Croton avenue.

Mrs. Pascarella attended Mahoning school and was affiliated with the Shenango Pottery, while Mrs. Pascarella attended East Brook high school and is also employed at the pottery.

Hints On Etiquette

It is socially correct for a man to make a call promptly upon a hostess who has entertained him at dinner—unless, of course, he is an out-of-towner when it would be impossible. A note of thanks in that case takes the place of the call.

Hard To Realize German Situation

BERLIN, Aug. 28.—When you actually come up against the German people, it is with a shock of surprise. You see them pulling and pushing carts piled with wood. You see skinny children playing in ruins. You see them working in vegetable gardens in the despoiled Tiergarten that was once the pride of Berlin.

Why, you say to yourself, these are the herrenvolk—the master race. These are the people who set out to conquer the world. So powerful was the force of the Hitler propaganda. It is hard to realize that this is the same herrenvolk that now stands respectfully to one side as an American military car passes.

Surface Submissiveness
Americans working with the Germans during the past two years describe their attitude as between servility and sullenness. Their surface submissiveness is partly due to a state of shock. They have not yet recovered from the crushing defeat of two years ago.

Germany is still a vacuum, in the view of able observers. To put it another way, the surface of the German mind has been wiped clean by the events of the past eight years. War and defeat were a vast cataclysm which left the German people exhausted and drained of all feeling.

Now, in the midst of ruin, former allies are competing for a revived Germany. That is the real meaning of what is happening here from day to day. It is clear in almost every event that occurs.

Russian Gesture
For example, recently the Russians in their zone granted amnesty to all nominal former members of the Nazi party. That is to say, they cleared of blame hundreds of thousands who could show that they joined the party merely to keep jobs or pensions. American officials regarded this as a move on the part of the Russians to win the confidence of the Germans. The Americans knew that they could never bring all the little Nazis to trial in German courts at this late date, so some such move was inevitable in the American zone too. But the

The World and the Mud Puddles

AN IMPORTANT CABINET OFFICER

The major activities of the United States Department of the Interior concerns the assets of the West. Practically all of our undeveloped resources lie West of the Rockies. The potentialities for power, development and reclamation projects there by far overshadow those of the remainder of the country. The Interior Department has jurisdiction over minerals, grazing service, operations of the General Land Office, Fisheries, Indian Affairs, the Bureau of Reclamation, national parks, public power, timber, fuel administration, geological surveys, and also the administration of Alaska, Hawaii and other island possessions.

Bulk Of Responsibilities
It is apparent that the bulk of the responsibilities of the Department are centered in the West and the western territorial areas. The reason, of course, is that there is little undeveloped federal territory or resources in the older sections of the nation. The trend in reclamation and power development, for example, points to the west, the Southwest and the Northwest. Oil production in the West is a great industry with vast potentialities. Food production—grains, fruits, meats and vegetables—yearly grows more important to the nation as a whole.

Not On Sectionalism Basis
Not on any basis of sectionalism or political geography, but because the vital responsibilities of the Interior Department center on that side of the continent, it is reasonable to believe that the best interests not only of the great West itself, but of the country as a whole, could be better conserved by a Westerner, thoroughly familiar with this vast area and its problems. ### RESPECT OTHER CHILD'S POSSESSIONS

Before your child returns to school or enters school for the first time, you should ask yourself how well he has learned to respect other people and their possessions.

Every child on his way to and from school is faced with new temptations to take or handle things not his own, typically when they are other children who do. This may apply especially to fruit and vegetables on lawns and lots and fields. Often school children become great nuisances to property owners. But these property owners are not our first consideration. Rather the children and their moral welfare are.

Two Angles
You may attack this problem from two angles. In the first place you should be very exacting of your child while in your presence concerning the possessions of other people—right in his home and in the neighborhood. If your child has not learned due regard for the things belonging to other members of the family, to the near-by-neighborhood, and to the merchants living near, he will have had poor training for good citizenship while going to and from school and in and around the school building.

In the second place, having trained your child in good habits and attitudes toward the possessions of others in your presence, you also may do some good by talking to this child. You may if you have companionable relationships with him. At quiet, lovely moments alone with him you might win his cooperation by telling him you wish he would always be thoughtful of other people and their property. Try to get him to put himself, in his imagination, in their places so he might see how they must feel when any child mars, destroys or appropriates their things.

A Powerful Influence
Teachers whose children esteem them could have a powerful influence for good in these directions. So also could Sunday school teachers, leaders of Cubs, Scouts and similar organizations.

Wise parents begin early to train the child in due regard for the possessions and rights of others, at home and then in wider areas. Check on your toddler out of doors and give him necessary guidance in respect to property. (My special bulletin, "Teaching Child Care of Property," may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.) When you see him deliberately harming property punish him effectively at once. Apply a switch, strop or paddle if you can't use your hand on him skin to skin. Be sure it really hurts. ## From Me To You

By MESEALL

Don't suppose that many of you are going traveling on this last gala big holiday—surely not... look at the traffic that has been moving over the roads with just an ordinary week-end to spend... what will it be like with all the United States on vacation... But if you can't talk the boss of the family into staying at home... you can at least insist that the driving be done with care... that doesn't mean that you should operate your motor car with the speed of a snail... no it doesn't mean that you should cover hundreds of miles at a mile a minute... there is a happy medium and if everyone drove carefully there wouldn't be any great big headlines on Tuesday, September 2nd... telling of the heartaches that are scattered about the countryside.

But if you are able to talk the boss into staying around town... you can entertain yourself, your family and friends at a very interesting sport... here in New Castle we will have the pleasure of witnessing another of those exciting soap box races... Sponsored again this year by that promising new organization, composed of young business men, called the Optimist.

Last year thousands of folks attended the show... held on the soap box race track... Taylor Street... this year there will be even more but a new system of handling the crowd will be tried... it is hoped... and there is little reason to doubt that it won't work... that every one in attendance will be able to see.

In order to help make this new plan work perfectly... Frank Sargent... is asking all former OGD men and women, who can afford the time, to report at the race track Monday one hour before track time which is ten o'clock. And you former wardens, policemen and firemen... if you haven't an arm band on hand... don't fret... Sargent will have some to hand out at the event.

We hope that many former OGD personnel will help out on this project... a good fellowship was had during the active period of OGD... there is no reason why all can't have fun together without a war to make us realize it.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

In my newspaper this morning I read a story to the effect that a new political party called the Vegetarian Party is about to be launched by a New York bookseller and that they will have a candidate for President in the next election to run on the Vegetarian ticket.

In the same story, the writer proposes that we do away with the Republican and Democratic parties and substitute the Vegetarian Party and, in opposition, another party to be formed and to be called the Meat-Eaters' Party.

I herewith declare myself completely in favor of the idea and at the same time, here and now, file my application as a registered member of the Meat-Eaters' party.

I believe that the new political alignment would make our entire political structure much clearer and much more simple.

As it is now, whenever anybody asks me to define the difference between Republicans and Democrats, I always have to admit that I don't know the difference.

I have asked a number of politicians who, while they make vague attempts to answer my question, seem not to have the slightest idea of what distinguishes one from the other.

The nearest I have been able to come to any clear understanding of the problem is the fact that every true Democrat insists that every Republican is a skunk, and with the Republicans it is exactly vice versa.

If you followed the Johnny Meyer-Howard Hughes investigation in Washington you certainly must admit that it smells on both sides, and there again, I can't see the slightest difference between Republican and Democratic behavior.

I myself have always voted Republican. I can't possibly tell you why, except, perhaps, that I discovered, when I started to vote some years ago, it seemed to me that all the more successful people were then Republicans. Being ambitious in those days, I considered it wise to be a Republican, too, so I got into a rut and am a Republican still.

To offset matters, my wife, hailing from the south, was an ardent Democrat, until the late President Roosevelt succeeded in converting her to Republicanism.

Such things could happen if there were a Meat-Eaters' and a Vegetarian party.

The issues would be clear-cut. Either you eat meat or you don't eat it.

And they could still have a lot of fun in Congress.

Should meat be eaten rare or medium or well-done?

Should vegetables be cooked or raw? Should there be a law that meat-eaters couldn't have cabbage with their corned beef and would eggs, being part of a chicken, which is meat, be banned for the Vegetarians?

And here is another advantage: Instead of having nothing but lawyers and newspaper publishers for politicians we would have butchers and greengrocers and restaurant men.

The mere thought makes my mouth water.

USHERS AT WEDDING

Question: Should the ushers at a wedding be friends of the bridegroom or friends of the bride?

Answer: They are chosen with the approval of the bride and groom among their friends and relatives. Usually they are friends of the groom, but not necessarily so. In a large wedding party the groom usually includes a brother or fond cousin of the bride among the ushers and she includes a sister or cousin of the groom among her bridesmaids.

Question: Who goes first—the man or the woman—in ascending and descending stairs?

Answer: The woman always precedes, both ascending and descending.

Question: In addressing a doctor, what salutation should be used?

Answer: "Dear Dr. Blank". The word, "doctor" should be abbreviated.

Question: May tuxedos be worn by the groom and his attendants at a formal, late afternoon wedding?

Answer: Tuxedos are never correct in a wedding unless the bride dresses in dinner clothes and has only one attendant. This is permissible only after six p. m. At a formal evening wedding, swallow tail coats and white ties are the only correct attire. At a formal morning or afternoon wedding, taking place before six p. m., striped trousers, cutaway coats, etc., are correct.

Question: I have seen asparagus eaten with the fingers. Is this correct?

Answer: No. The fork should always be used and the stalk should be broken with the fork.

World Food Shortage Is Tough
Tug-Of-War Underway Over Prices

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The AFL executive council, top governing body of the Federation's more than seven million members, is expected to get two new members at its forthcoming Chicago meeting.

A couple of retirements are in order and it is believed that Charles McGowan, head of the boiler-makers, and Daniel W. Tracy, president of the electrical workers, will move in the vacancies.

McGowan and Tracy are long-time close friends. They have worked together well in union affairs and will add considerable strength to the AFL council, several of whose members have been in ill health and inactive for many months.

Tracy served as assistant secretary of labor under Frances Perkins, but resigned a little over a year ago and immediately was re-elected president of the electrical workers.

The latter union should have little difficulty under the Taft-Hartley law. "The electrical contracting industry has been free of major strikes for some 15 years as a result of a joint union-management council set up to adjudicate differences."

WORLD FOOD SITUATION TOUGH ALL OVER.—Europe has been brightly spotlighted in the world food shortage picture, but bare cupboards surround the white circle as far as Asia.

The United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization's report on food prospects for the next year emphasizes that scarcities reach round the globe.

UNFAO says things will not get better for a long time. Fear of surpluses by food producers constitute one of UNFAO's toughest problems. Producers believe shortage of foreign exchange will reduce demand for imports; that in any case demand will shrink when rehabilitation needs have been met, or that synthetics will displace many farm products.

Therefore, they hesitate to invest heavily to develop new production for export which may not pay off. Already some producers—natural rubber, for instance—find their livelihood threatened.

RUSSIA ON THE BUILD—While pitifully-lagging United States production of freight cars retards a dozen key industries, the Soviet Union claims that its output of railway cars now exceeds the pre-war level.

This information is contained in the current issue of the USSR Bulletin, a propaganda booklet published by the Russian embassy in Washington.

Another note on Soviet industry states that the Russians are starting to make refrigerators, motorboats, rowboats and lifebuoys from a new plastic materials of exceptional lightness weighing 1/20 as much as water, 1/5 as much as cork.

According to the Bulletin, a ship built of the new plastic can carry cargo 12 times her own weight.

PRICE BATTLE—An open tug-of-war is underway between the National Association of Manufacturers and the CIO over prices.

Both organizations take to the propaganda mediums and state their case—the NAM in its publication NAM News, and the CIO in its Economic Outlook.

Says NAM: "Public resistance to present prices has given the New Deal die-hards new life in their campaign to control profits and hence impose a managed economy on the United States."

"Behind-the-scenes efforts have accelerated and centered on getting at profits through control of prices despite public denials by former OPA-ites that they do not foresee a return of that price control body."

The CIO wants: "Establishment of a federal price investigation board whose job it would be by use of public pressure and exposure of profiteering, to bring to light the reasons for current high prices."

"Re-establishment of price control and rationing if this country follows the Marshall plan for Europe, and if crop failures develop because of floods in the mid-west."

In View Of The News

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

The commitment to halt Communism at the northern frontiers of strategic Greece apparently is propelling the United States today into more extensive military aid than originally intended.

The United States already has threatened in the U. N. security council to take independent action to save Greece, and officially has backed the majority U. N. commission report blaming Albania, Yugoslavia, and Bulgaria for fomenting insurrection in Greece.

This occurred after Russia vetoed all efforts to settle the Balkan dispute, and the United States will carry the fight to the U. N. general assembly next month.

Favors Sending Troops
Paul Griffith, national commander of the American Legion, bluntly declared he favored the dispatch of American troops to Greece to keep that country from being invaded.

He also wants congress called back into special session to enact universal military training and other national defense measures—hence he at least is aware of how dangerous the situation is in Greece.

On the political front in Athens, American officials find themselves in the difficult role of trying to advise and mediate to obtain a broadly representative cabinet that can muster all possible support against the Greek guerrillas.

Lessen Cries Of Interference
They are trying to do this and still lessen the inevitable cries from Russia of "interference" in Greece domestic affairs.

On the military front no American official publicly will say there is any intention of sending troops to Greece—something that apparently never was intended.

But reports from Athens make it seem very unlikely that the 150 million dollars worth of military equipment destined for Greece can crush the guerrillas.

And unless the guerrillas are smashed Greece never can be put on a sound economic basis. A prelude to peace in the impoverished land.

Her it is likely that some of the 300 million dollars originally intended for purely reconstructive work must be added to the 150 million dollars which was earmarked for just the military.

THE BLESSING

"The Lord has given and called away."

So doth the verse of Scripture run. But it takes faith sublime to say "Ungrudgingly: 'Thy will be done.'"

So sharp the sting when hurt appears! So deep the sigh, so loud the deep moan!

Forgotten seem the happy years. And all the blessings we have known.

CALLING

Russians beat us to it with a sweeping gesture.

In the contest between the Russians on the one hand and the Americans and British on the other, the Soviets have employed a constant stream of propaganda to the effect that denazification is not being pushed in the other zones. While playing this propaganda line, they in their own zone have forgiven many Nazis who agreed to participate in the communist-dominated Socialist Unity party.

Growing More Intense

The contest over Germany is growing more intense. It reflects the increasing bitterness of opposition between east and west all over the world. The Russians apparently believed that all of Germany would be their prize with the war's end. They counted on a triumph of communism coming out of ruin and despair.

Long before the Soviets took power in 1917, a union of German technical and organizing capacity with Russian mass and Russian resources was an objective of czarist policy. In the immediate aftermath of World War II, Soviet officials often talked frankly of their expectations. At the time of the Potsdam conference, Vice Foreign Commissar Andrei Vishinsky told an American diplomat that very soon Germany would be a communist state.

Soviets Fall Short

Events have not happened according to the Soviet timetable. Evidence accumulates that even in their own zone the Soviets have fallen far short of mass conversion to communism. Their failure baffles and frustrates them. Because they cannot accept any flaw in the religion of communism, they must find a villain to blame.

This partly explains their mounting fear, suspicion and cries of "fascist". It is why some observers believe a new purge inside Russia is likely.

At the same time, this is a critical movement in the American occupation of Germany. Basic decisions cannot any longer be avoided. The process of compromise has been stretched too far to cover policy up to now. It hardly seems possible to stretch it further.

The man of the crisis is one of the most remarkable Americans to come out of the war—Gen. Lucius D. Clay, military governor. There are generals and generals. Lieut. General John C. H. Lee made a fool of himself in his little principality in Italy, indulging in the same luxuries and love of pomp that made him slightly ridiculous and not a little offensive all during the war. The Clay story is an entirely different story. Even those disagreeing with the direction of American policy concede that Clay has performed a heroic task under almost impossible circumstances. The man and the job will be the theme of several columns to follow.

Kiwanis Hears Labor Leader

Ralph Audino Of Trades And Labor Assembly On Right To Organize

New Castle Kiwanis Club members heard a logical talk on the "Right of Labor to Organize," when they were addressed by Ralph Audino, chief clerk of the B. and O. railroad shops, at the noon luncheon meeting of the club on Wednesday.

Mr. Audino stated that in organizing unions, the laboring man was doing the only thing open to him for his protection, and compared the various union organizations to the organizations which have been formed by various professional groups. These latter, he pointed out, have been formed for the mutual advancement and betterment of these professions, so that labor really has a natural right to organize.

He spoke for some little time on this theme and the meeting was then thrown open for questions, which Mr. Audino answered.

The meeting was held as a part of Kiwanis International's program of promoting better relationship between capital and labor, and the public. He was introduced by Dr. J. Wesley Post, the program having been sponsored by the Business Standards Committee, of which Clement D. Parker is chairman. It proved most enlightening to many of the members, giving them a better insight into the labor movement.

Wise Words About Work

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Aug. 31 is Proverbs 6:6-11, 10:4-5, 13:4, 18:9, 19:15, 22:29, 24:30, 26:13-16, 27:23-27; Ecclesiastes 5:12, the Memory Verse being Ecclesiastes 9:10, "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might.")

All through the scriptures we have great lessons taught by examples from Nature. Our lesson today, for instance, refers to the marvelous activity of ants. Ants are native to almost all countries, temperate and tropical, and their habits have always been a subject of interest, so Solomon used a very apt reference when he spoke of their industry.

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise; Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, Provideth her meat in the summer and gathereth her food in the harvest."

Ants, unlike bees, have no leader, but they are extremely social and every member of a colony works hard. Work was Adam's punishment for disobeying God and partaking of the tree of knowledge. Sluggards—lazy people—still consider work a hardship, but if there is anything that brings more satisfaction than work—a job well done and enjoyed in the doing—this writer does not know what it is. "All work and no play" is a hardship, but with the majority of people in middleclass life the two alternate and both are enjoyed.

The Sluggard Sleeps
"How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?"
"Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:"
"So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth and thy want as an armed man."

"He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster."

The child that will not do his school work and refuses to perform the few tasks allotted him at home is never really happy or contented. He (or she) doesn't fit into the family way of life and is socially ill-adjusted. He is a "waster," as Solomon says.

The Israelites were an agricultural people. They raised crops and kept flocks and herds, so all the pictures we are given of their life and problems describe this type of life.

We Must Eat To Live
The individual fact is that we must eat to live, and generally only by work can our food be supplied. True, in times of depression, as in the one in the early '30's, industrious people were thrown out of work and their families suffered, through no fault of theirs, but generally speaking, the industrious person who is a "good provider" for his family takes his responsibilities seriously.

Lazy people always can think of excuses for themselves. Sometimes they imagine they are ill; sometimes they are in the wrong environment, or job. They are clever in thinking of such excuses. Solomon tells us:

"The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way, a lion is in the streets."

"As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed."

"The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth."

"The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason."

"As the door moves round the same center and cannot be separated from it, it moves but does not move forward. So the slothful lies now on this side, now that, but will not be torn from his bed," one commentator remarked.

"The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep," we read in Ecclesiastes. Almost every person desires riches, and thinks that if only he was wealthy he would be happy. As a matter of fact, the cares that come with wealth often quite outweigh the benefits.

Our Memory Verse sums up the day's lesson for us. "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 1 pint a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, sitting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Housing Needs To Be Surveyed

Survey Spurred In State By Insurance Companies Interested In Real Estate

HARRISBURG, Aug. 28.—(INS)—A survey of housing needs in Pennsylvania was spurred today by insurance companies interested in real estate investments.

Insurance Commissioner James F. Malone said many underwriters had informed him they were making a coordinated study to determine the scope of the housing shortage so as to plan projects and avoid duplication and harmful competition.

Life and casualty firms were authorized to invest up to 10 per cent of their assets in housing and commercial real estate under legislation enacted by the General Assembly this year.

Anxious To Take Advantage

"The insurance companies appear anxious to take advantage of the new acts," Malone said. "It would be difficult to say when they may be able to undertake construction, but they will be ready when materials and labor are available."

They are endeavoring to get a state-wide picture of present housing facilities to avoid needless construction," he added.

The firms apparently were undecided whether to invest in low or medium cost dwellings, Malone said.

The Pennsylvania Real Estate association assailed the legislation for enactment of the laws, claiming insurance firms would build only high priced living quarters that would fail to meet widespread demands for reasonably priced houses.

Should Advance Rapidly

Lawmakers felt housing would be advanced more rapidly if millions of dollars could be poured into projects by insurance companies than if real estate firms were relied upon to erect homes piecemeal.

Individual company surveys on housing will be channeled to a large Philadelphia firm where a comprehensive report will be compiled for redistribution, according to Malone.

The state housing board has estimated a shortage of 20,000 homes in Pennsylvania.

Contradicting an early prediction, the board predicted some firms may break ground for rental housing by November.

Assistant Director Daniel Rogers said most insurers planning to enter the real estate field within the next year expected to erect medium cost dwellings with rentals ranging from $60 to $90 a month.

BENEFITS PAID IN STATE

HARRISBURG, Aug. 28.—(INS)—State Treasurer Ramsey S. Black reported today benefits totaling $1,563,376 were paid to 77,470 veterans during the week ended August 27, while payments amounting to $1,178,272 were made to 70,232 unemployed civilians.

The previous week's disbursements were $1,552,833 to former service men and $1,185,514 to jobless civilians, he added.

Clinton Methodist Plans Homecoming

Congregation To Observe 124th Anniversary With Appropriate Services Sunday

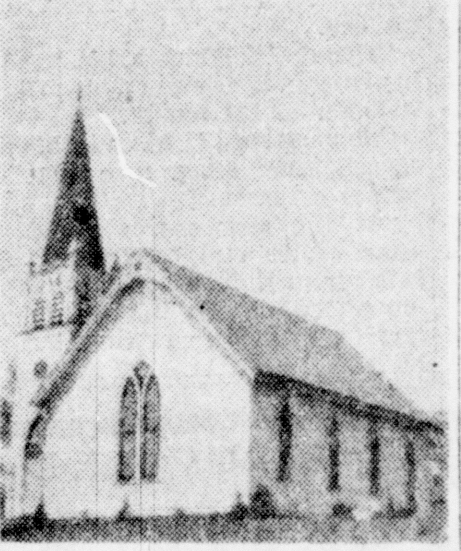

Plans have been completed by Clinton Methodist church for observance of the one hundred twenty-fourth anniversary of its founding Sunday, August 31. Appropriate services have been planned for the morning, afternoon and evening.

Bessemer Schools To Open Tuesday

Plans Are Complete For Opening Of Fall Term Next Week

Bessemer borough schools will open for the fall term on Tuesday, September 2, supervising principal Chandler B. McMillan announced today. Classes for grades 7 through 12 will begin at 8:30 a.m., while the elementary school pupils are to report at 9:00 a.m.

There will be a meeting of the secondary school teachers in the high school building at 7:30 a.m. for the purpose of receiving announcements and instructions relative to the first day of school. A meeting of elementary teachers is planned for 2:15 p.m.

For the first time in six years, Mr. McMillan announces, every member of the teaching staff will be returning for the fall term. Miss Zula Lusk, who has been on leave of absence since early in the 1946-47 term, has been granted a year of sabbatical leave, and Mrs. Dorothea Sherer, who finished her term last year, will teach the first grade.

Back After Six Years
Frank Thomas, who has returned from six years of service in the U.S. Army, will resume his duties this fall. In addition to his teaching duties, Mr. Thomas has been elected to the position of high school principal and will assist Mr. McMillan with the supervision of the school.

Elementary pupils will return to a building brightened by new paint on all rooms and corridors. As an experiment, new fluorescent lights have been placed in Room 2. If they prove satisfactory, it is planned to equip other rooms in the same manner at a later date. Desks have been painted and varnished throughout the building by Gust Johnson, elementary school janitor, and everything is in readiness for the advent of the pupils.

The parking area beside the high school building and extending back the driveway to the locker room door, has been blacktopped during the past few days.

Building In Fine Shape
Frank Pelt, high school custodian, reports that all desks and tables throughout the building have been refinished, and that the tables in the art room have all been sanded and varnished. The gym floor has been cleaned, sealed and waxed until it could easily be mistaken for the past few days.

A new floor, Mr. Pelt also was able to reconstruct a number of auditorium chairs by using parts of those which it was no longer possible to repair.

The secondary curriculum has been strengthened by the addition of two new courses, World Geography in grade 10, and Senior Science in grade 12. Miss Bingham will teach the World Geography while Mr. Glaspy will be the Senior Science instructor.

The Senior Science course is designed for senior students who do not have the mathematics background for a course in physics, but who are interested in the field of science.

Another curriculum innovation has been planned by William Ciccone, coach and physical education teacher. Mr. Ciccone plans to add wrestling as a major activity of the boys' health classes. Mr. Ciccone received special training during the summer at the University of Pittsburgh, fitting him to instruct the boys in this field.

A show of armed might was the strongest answer to the communist threat, he told delegates to the American Legion's national convention at Madison Square Garden. He spoke after receiving the organization's distinguished service medal.

AIRMAIL REACHES JAPAN
TOKYO, Aug. 28.—(INS)—The first post-war cargo of commercial airmail to reach Japan arrived today at Tokyo's Haneda airport aboard a Northwest Airlines plane. The "great circle" route mail schedule provides a landing in Japan two days after takeoff from the west coast of the United States and three days from points in the eastern U. S.

Before the war most U. S. airmail delivered to Japan arrived via Shanghai.

MUST PROVE AGE
HARRISBURG, Aug. 28.—(INS)—The State Liquor Control Board today reminded young people that they may be asked to prove their majority when purchasing liquor in state stores or taprooms effective Monday.

The board announced that a new law, effective September 1, provided that registration cards signed and issued to voters would be accepted as an identification card and primary proof that the purchaser was 21 years of age or more.

Subs Voyage Under Ice Pack

Secrecy-Veiled Voyage Is Made In Alaskan Waters By U. S. Task Unit

PART OF ROUTINE CRUISE IS REPORT

By DANIEL C. WEBSTER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)
JUNEAU, Alaska, Aug. 28.—A U. S. navy submarine task unit, with an admiral in command, was revealed today to have made a secrecy-veiled voyage under the polar ice pack off the Siberian coast. Mystery still shrouded the mission to the top of the world as the undersea boats were en route south from Juneau.

Dangerous Dive
The dangerous dive under the frozen stepping stone between North America and Russia was made by Rear Adm. A. R. McCann, commanding the submarine force of the Pacific Fleet.

Admiral McCann and picked members of his staff joined the submarine task unit at Adak, in the Aleutian Islands. The submersible unit, formed at Pearl Harbor last month, embraced the submarine tender Nereus and fleet submarines Boarfish, Calman, Chub and Cabezon.

The Boarfish, skippered by Cmdr. J. H. Turner, reached the Aleutian rendezvous from San Diego, Cal., and served as Admiral McCann's flagship.

Cruise "Routine"
Capt. L. H. Chappell, commodore of the task unit, admitting the shores of Siberia were visible from his periscope, insisted today in Juneau that the cruise was "routine".

He stressed, however, that: "For some years now, the navy's attention has been directed to the Central and South Pacific, and Admiral McCann was desirous of giving young crews experience in Alaskan waters."

Captain Chappell also dismissed as "routine" the sounding and charting of Arctic waters off Siberia, west of the U. S. navy's vast new oil reserve at Point Barrow, northernmost tip of North America.

The task unit commodore declined comment on the testing of new undersea equipment and professed no knowledge of reported Navy department "concern" over the number, type and disposition of the Soviet undersea fleet.

In Maneuvers
Along the Aleutian chain, the subs engaged in maneuvers under an umbrella or Adak-based naval aircraft. This training phase of the cruise ended at St. Paul Island, in the Pribilof group.

On the second morning north of the Bering Strait, in the shadow of Siberia's shore, the subs encountered ice.

During the 36 hours that the complete force spent at the solid ice pack, visibility was described as "mostly good, though overcast."

Admiral McCann and Captain Chappell then boarded the Boarfish for a secrecy-obscured dash under the ice cap, Captain Chappell said.

"Although water in the Arctic ocean is comparatively shallow, the Boarfish submerged in 15 or 20 fathoms and passed easily under the ice pack."

"There really was no way of telling we were under the ice. There was nothing to see. All we could do was look at the chart to determine our position relative to the edge of the ice crust."

The Boarfish, which would not have been in "emergency surface" while under the ice, performed perfectly under extremely cold going.

John Huff Slightly Injured When Bus Goes Off Road Near Gettysburg

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Huff, of 604 North Liberty street, received word from their son, John, at Trenton, N. Y., on Tuesday, that he had been in an accident, and had suffered a wounded shoulder and arm.

On Saturday, John left here by bus for Camp Murray, Rotary Island, Trenton, to attend the inter-denominational conference of young people. That evening, about 6 miles out of Gettysburg, the bus in some manner went off the road and brushed along some trees on the roadside. A man sitting behind Johnny had his face cut. The latter was taking a nap when the accident occurred.

The injuries needed no hospitalization, and they proceeded on their journey.

In a card from John on Wednesday he told his parents he was getting along alright, but quite shaken up, but not to worry. Four other young folks and Rev. Howard A. Redmond, pastor of Mahoningtown Presbyterian church are also attending the conference, having left August 15.

Lions And Families Have Annual Corn Roast Wednesday

Evening Of Pleasure Enjoyed By
New Castle Lions Club And Guests At Lakewood

Fun and pleasure reigned supreme at the annual corn roast held at Lakewood Wednesday by the New Castle Lions Club for members, their families, and a number of special guests.

George A. Wagner was general chairman, assisted by Dr. T. J. Fletcher as co-chairman, and they had an evening of activity mapped out which kept everybody busy.

There was a splendid crowd in attendance with games for the kids, and stunts and games for the older folks, and the event will go down in the annals of the club as another fine occasion.

Good Samaritan Robbed For Effort

E. E. Mohr, of Espsville, played the role of a Good Samaritan last night and was slugged, knocked unconscious and robbed for his kindness, according to a report to police here.

He gave a ride to two young men in Greenville at 8:40 p. m. When his car was three miles east of West Middlesex, one of them stuck a revolver in his side, later hitting him over the head.

While unconscious they removed him from his Willys sedan which they stole.

This occurred at 8:40 p. m. Wednesday. He regained consciousness at four a. m. today and spread the alarm.

JOIN RATE PROTEST

McKEESPORT, Pa., Aug. 28.—(INS)—Mayors of McKeesport and Duquesne today joined the protest against the proposed Pittsburgh Railway Co. fare increase.

Mayor Frank Kopriver, of Duquesne, said that any fare increase would be unjustified "especially in the light of present inadequate service."

Mayor Charles A. Kincaid, of Mc-

Keesport, said he would check to see if the fare hike was unavoidable before joining with other leaders trying to prevent the raise.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 28.—A new star whose appeal for the ladies may match that of John Gilbert, or even the fabulous Valentino, will blossom forth on the American screen this fall.

The gentleman in question is Richard Hart, making his debut in M-G-M's "Green Dolphin Street". The opinion of Dick's future is not that of a mere reporter. It's that of one of Hollywood's greatest producers, Cary Wilson.

Said Cary: "He has a great future ahead of him. He is of a type we find very rarely—a kind of romantic heavy."

Have Cruel Impulses

"Men, by instinct, are primitive. Their impulse is to be cruel to women."

"Rudolph Valentino was one of the greatest exponents of this type. He was ruthless with his women, but no star ever lived who had a greater following of women."

"Gilbert was another. Go way back to his screen love scenes with Mae Murray. He always appeared to be ready to hurt her even as he was kissing her."

"His love scenes with Greta Garbo were some of the greatest in screen history."

"John was a good friend of mine, and one day he said to me, 'I should be a real heavy.'"

Makes Heavy Love

"What Valentino and Gilbert had,

Dick Hart has in a very large measure. In some of his scenes with Lana Turner he shows a cold cruelty which makes you shudder."

"Yet, a poll of our three preview audiences showed that for every two persons who thought Lana, one of our great established stars, was the top member of the cast, one thought Dick was the best. That is a startling record."

Gable At Work

Clark Gable hasn't wasted any time getting back into his third picture since his discharge from the army airforce.

"He's started 'Homecoming', with one of the most de luxe casts assembled in Hollywood in many a day."

His love interest is the lovely Miss Turner, but there is real love interest on the stage."

John Hodiak and Anne Baxter, still honeymooners since their marriage more than a year ago, are appearing together in the picture.

MAKING TRIAL RUNS

CLEVELAND, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Weather conditions at Cleveland airport today allayed national air race officials' fears that two-score pilots would not be able to qualify before deadline time tomorrow.

Forty pilots, including 29 entrants for the Thompson trophy race, have not made their trial runs for the speed events of the three-day air classic which begins Saturday.

NEAR MISS

SEATTLE—John Price knows he is a very lucky person but he doesn't want to crowd his luck. A 400-pound piece of steel recently toppled from an upper story of a downtown building, narrowly missing Price's automobile. He was just about to get out of the car when the steel crashed to the street—right where Price would have been standing.

INDIAN ARTISTRY

O'NEILL, Neb.—(INS)—Indians

who lived near O'Neill thousands of years ago made the most durable "pictures" known. In a pasture just east of the city, is a fine example, a so-called water-panther, cut two feet deep in the earth and preserved by roots of wild grass. The likeness is about 250 feet long and 12 feet wide. Archaeologists say it originally was four feet deep and the outline was preserved by keeping water in it.

OLD-CAR FACTORY

CHICAGO—(INS)—Ever hear of a Sears, a Doble, a Brisco, a Stoddard-Dayton or a Brush? If you remember the horse and buggy days, chances are you do. If not, they're old time cars. And they are all on display at the Chicago Museum of Science and Industry. The museum operates one of the world's most novel factories. It's devoted to putting relics of the early road into running condition.

LOVES CAROLINA

ANDERSON, S. C.—(INS)—W. B. Camp is a South Carolinian

through and through. And even though he now lives in California, Camp is so intensely interested in the welfare of his native state that he has set up a $15,000 fund to be used for training and educating South Carolina youths interested in irrigation and its needs in the state.

LANGUAGE DIFFICULTIES

MEADVILLE, Pa.—(INS)—Trousseau may be a French word, but just try to purchase one if you can talk little English and only

French. Miss Elsie Rehr, of Le-routville, France, had that experience when she arrived in this country to marry Mike Olynik of Cambridge Springs, an ex-sergeant. But it all worked out when finally she met Mrs. Frank B. Kunselman, a French war bride of World War I. With Mrs. Kunselman doing the talking and Miss Rehr the selecting, the trousseau was purchased.

A. Turnverein is a German word meaning association of athletes.

Men Are Cold To Idea Of Wearing Diamonds

By MARTHA KEARNEY
(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—(INS)—Still prefer diamonds, but men are cold to the idea of wearing ice on the manly person.

So the Bureau of Mines annual report on gems and stones indicated today in revealing that retail diamond sales hit an all-time high during the first half of 1946.

The report found that ladies like their diamonds particularly well when they are twinkling out of a platinum setting and nestling snugly between rubies or sapphires or both.

Men, the bureau conceded, have become reconciled to the idea of wearing wedding rings but the report said that the campaign to sell them on decking themselves in other personal jewelry has been "only slightly successful."

Diamond-Studded Year

The resumption of formal entertaining after the wartime blackout on social activities was credited with making 1946 a diamond-studded year. During the last quarter of that year however retailers reported that the demand for sparklers had tapered off considerably.

If for one reason or another diamonds are out of the question for your favorite folly, the bureau suggested that she would be happiest with rubies, sapphires, pearls, aquamarine or turquoise—in that order—as a substitute.

It was pointed out that on a world-wide scale diamonds owed much of their desirability to their value as investments. The report noted that few other countries boasted nationals who could afford them purely as adornment.

In the general jewelry field a falling-off of interest in Victorian pieces and massive settings was detected along with a decided preference for "lacy, delicate" jewelry.

Increased demand was registered during 1946 for "double-duty" pieces such as bracelets which could be used as necklaces and double clips which could be detached and used separately, possible as pins. Multiple bracelets also were popular.

A trend toward matching clips, rings and earrings was reported as well as tendency to make necklaces longer than those which had been worn in previous years.

But if you can't rush right out this minute to get a diamond tiara and stay in style remember the poet's assurance that kind hearts are more than coronets and take comfort.

It would probably just be gliding the hilly anyway.

United States Sharply Rebukes Soviet On Atom

Soviet Boycott Of U. N. Atomic Energy Commissions Plan
Of Control Assailed

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug. 28.—(INS)—The United States sharply rebuked the Soviet Union Wednesday for boycotting the U. N. Atomic Energy Commission's drafting of plans for a central atom control agency.

U. S. Representative Frederick Osborn let fly in the atomic working committee at Lake Success after Soviet Delegate Andrei Gromyko said he would reserve comment.

Gromyko said he would wait all the other eleven representatives who participated in the drafting of six working papers embodied in the plan had expressed their individual opinions.

The renewed flare-up, which preceded this afternoon's expected clash between the Soviets and other Security Council members over the veto concerned six working papers to be incorporated in the second report of the Atomic Energy Commission of the Security Council.

They sponsor an all-powerful central international agency for atomic control.

Osborn flatly informed Gromyko that the United States fully accepts the principle of an international atom control agency and rejects the Soviet plan for a national agency controlled by the individual governments.

Says Parents Are Target Of Wave Of Criticism

My MARTHA KEARNEY
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—A child's bureau consultant believes that parents are more to be pitied than censured when they produce junior grade gangsters and hoodlums.

Samuel Whitman, executive director of the Cleveland Mental Hygiene Association, says that parents are people, not clay pigeons; people beset by more problems and more serious frustrations than their children.

He explains in the bureau's bulletin:

Destructive Criticism
"The last 20 years have witnessed a thoughtless, unwarranted and destructive wave of criticism against parents.

"In the beginning such criticism served the useful purpose of demonstrating that the source of a child's misbehavior does not always lie within the child.

"Unfortunately, it has led to a fault-finding campaign that is as futile as the previous campaign against 'little sinners'.

"The most serious fallacy in the thinking of these zealous critics lies in the assumption that parents are aware of their own shortcomings and deliberately plan to misguide and mistreat children.

False Assumption
"Common sense tells us that this is a false assumption. From the cases seen in child guidance clinics, it has been observed that the type of parental guidance contributing to a child's poor adjustment is largely unintentional and unwitting."

Whitman points out that parents were children once themselves and may very likely have been reared in a manner which would not equip them to handle the complex problems of modern life of their own offspring.

He says:
"It is essential therefore to see and understand the parent as a person who is in need of help with his own problems. It is vitally important that we understand the parent of a poorly adjusted child as a person who has had more than his share of difficulties and frustrations."

Task Never Easy
"The task of parenthood has never been easy. It is even more difficult during a period of industrial unrest, acute housing shortage and complex postwar readjustments because parents reflect such strains in family life.

"Thus, no matter how we twist or turn the inevitable conclusion is that maladjustment and delinquency are the responsibilities of the entire community."

Whitman concludes that blaming parents for all the sins of their children "merely pours salt on open wounds."

He suggests that sound community programs of clinical help for parents and children alike be established under competent auspices and that adults be taught how and where to find help in their difficulties.

Parents, it seems, have enough troubles without being used indiscriminately for target practice.

"Take It Easy And Live" Is Warning To Auto Drivers

Warning motorists against careless driving and speeding over the Labor Day week-end, R. B. Maxwell, secretary-manager of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation representing 60 affiliated AAA automobile clubs in the state, advised all drivers to "Take It Easy—and Live."

"The holiday week-end will find more cars on our highways than the ordinary week-end," Mr. Maxwell pointed out.

"Due to the fact that the highways will be crowded and congested," he continued, "it would be well for all motorists to exercise more than average caution in their driving."

The PMF official urged drivers to refrain from speeding, avoid passing on hills or curves, and to observe all traffic rules and regulations in general.

"No one wants their week-end marred by an accident which might result in death or serious injuries," Mr. Maxwell said.

"In order to enjoy an accident-free week-end," he urged, "drive within the speed limit and with caution.

"Another suggestion that motorists are too often inclined to forget is that the 'other fellow' should be shown a little consideration," Mr. Maxwell stated. "Courtesy on the highways should be a must with every driver."

In conclusion, Mr. Maxwell declared that the Labor Day week-end accident rate could be kept to a minimum if all motorists observe traffic rules and regulations.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

FISHERMAN'S LUCK! George Rigby, city health bureau 'cop' tasted of such recently. Here's the yarn: While fishing in the Slippery Rock creek he tired holding his pole, and desirous of inspecting another section of the creek, laid down the pole and walked away. When he returned he discovered a big fish had hit his bait and run off with the fly-pole and automatic reel. . . . George (Rocky) Lewis is back in town. He arrived Tuesday from Miami. He plans to go to a New York hospital to have his injured arm re-set. . . . Parking Commissioner Reese of Gary, Ind., is visiting the Davis family of Garfield Avenue. In a conversation with Harry Jones, sealer of weights, Reese said he witnessed the Tony Zale-Rocky Graziano fight. He said that prior to the fight, Zale told a group: "I have to get him in six or 'im a dead pigeon", the truth of which was borne out when Rocky knocked him out.

If the A.A.U. doesn't call a halt on some of the amateurs it will soon be nigh impossible to procure good amateur fighters. They are supposed to draw only so much expense money, but their demands are such that they are apt to put amateur clubs on the side-line. It is time for the Amateur Athletic Union to check the "rums" being made. Elkins Brothers will leave here to join a Washington, D. C. fight stable September 1, as a professional. . . . Joe Boyle, Aliquippa, won the Tam O'Shanter, Sharon, 36-hole medal play with a three-under-par 141. . . . Lallo Sabotin, one of Here & There's favorite middleweights, received a deserved award by being characterized "The Fighter of the Year" by the Shenango Valley Boxers Association. No one has been able to defeat Fireman Jack Thompson's protégé, who hails from Warren, O. . . . Turning in a five under par, Steve Kovach, took the Bedford open, with a 137. . . . While in the Ecclesian club several nights ago, George Chip heard Happy Birthday being sung to him, upon the occasion of his sixtieth birthday.

Court House
Residents Ask For Injunction

Seek Action Restraining
Drive-In Theatre Operation After Ten O'Clock

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Asking that the Skyline Drive-In Theatre near Parktown be restrained from operating after ten o'clock at night, an injunction has been asked by residents of Union township, residing near the theatre. The petition for the injunction is signed by the following residents: Mr. and Mrs. William H. Milson, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Wallace, Martha Matthews, Lillian Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dewey Shifflett, Mrs. E. C. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Sotus.

The petition for injunction recites that Dr. R. B. Herrick is the owner of the Skyline Drive Theatre which shows sound pictures in a drive-in theatre. The petitioners aver that the noise produced by the loud speakers disturbs their "rest, relaxation and sleep". They aver the theatre is operated between 8 o'clock and midnight or 12:30 every night seven nights per week.

Judge John G. Lamoree has set August 29 at 10 o'clock A.M., as the date for hearing the case.

Port Of Darien Is Closed To Shipping

Chinese Government Announces
Order Applies To All Foreign
Shipping, Also Soviet Vessels

NANKING, Aug. 28.—(INS)—The Chinese government announced today that an order closing the Russian-held Manchurian Port of Dairen to foreign shipping applies to Soviet vessels as well as to other foreign ships.

The announcement was made in Nanking by George Yeh, vice minister of foreign affairs.

The order closing Dairen to foreign shipping had been issued by the executive yuan, equivalent to the cabinet of the Chinese Central government.

Yeh pointed out that the free port of Dairen, Manchuria's principal ocean outlet, is presently under unilateral Russian control. Chinese-Soviet negotiations for the return of a Chinese civil administration to Dairen have bogged down because of Russian refusal to permit Chinese Government troops to enter the area.

Protection Necessary
The Chinese government maintains that military protection is necessary for any Nanking-appointed civil administration to enter the port since the area presently is being occupied by Chinese Communist forces.

Yeh said that no foreign ships henceforth will be allowed to engage in coastal trade between Chinese ports. He said Nanking government authorities reserve the right to prevent the landing from any foreign ship of cargoes or passengers originating in another Chinese port without first having obtained Chinese clearance.

The vice foreign minister obviously was referring to the alleged transport of Chinese Communist troops and supplies between Dairen and the Communist-held Shantung province Port of Chefoo, as repeatedly charged by Chinese Nationalist officials.

Pastor Cleared In Strange Death Case

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 28.—(INS)—A coroner's verdict today cleared a Knoxville, Tenn., minister in the strange death of Sherrod J. Lee, for whom a real funeral was being planned.

Friends and fellow churchmen thought they were attending last rites for Lee yesterday, only to be informed later that his body had been whisked away for an autopsy by Coroner O. K. Williams.

The coroner's probe disclosed that Lee was victim of a heart attack resulting from excitement and exertion, rather than a blow allegedly administered by the Rev. Henry J. Varner.

Lee's relatives had charged that he died after being struck in the head with a Bible by Varner.

Additional Pilots Fly Cross Country

Edward J. Long, 1215 West State street, Robert Colbert, R. D. 1, Donald Hoover, Edenburg and Harold Braden, New Castle, completed their cross country flights Wednesday, it was reported by Penn Aero Service at the New Castle Airport.

Garden Notes

When storing winter squashes and pumpkins remember that they require a dry atmosphere of 50 degrees or more.

A wise gardener will have some hay or straw ready at hand when early frost threatens. Swiss chard and lettuce can be kept productive into late fall if a protective mulch is placed over them on frosty nights. Fruits which drop prematurely are usually afflicted with insect or fungus pests. For this reason, it is wise to gather them up and destroy them rather than leave them on the ground where they may serve as a source of re-infection next season.

The hard fruits, such as apples, pears and quinces, may be stored for winter. A temperature of 34 to 40 degrees is best for keeping such fruits.

Onions should be pulled and allowed to dry thoroughly before the advent of wet, cold weather. Unless the tops are dried off well, the bulbs will not keep in storage.
